CALL FOR PAPERS

Namaskar!

Research is the real source of knowledge. Research is the prime means of Education. Research with a proper and noble purpose has always been and will continue to be the force behind all Human excellence and progress. This purpose needs to be refreshed from time to time. Commerce and warfare tend to grab precedence over all other Humane activities of life. This imbalance in preference and proportion of resource allocation to research results in disastrous consequences and periodically poses existential problems before the mankind. Hence there is always a need for course correction. Academic activity decides the course mankind will take in next few generations. Knowledge leads all other human endeavours.

In this era of resurgence Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal in collaboration with other five premier academic and research institutes of Nagpur invites you to participate in a historical Vidvat Sabha (Conglomeration of the Wise).

An International Conference on Research for Resurgence 11-13 February 2016, VNIT, Nagpur.

Accompanied by a unique competition for presentation of research idea either in text or a PPT or a Documentary or a poster or a Model -working or non working. The presentation has to be about research philosophy, practice or methodology in any of the 7 sub-themes covering almost all the areas of knowledge.

There are prizes worth Rs 100000 to be won. Hurry, registration is on. See the attached flyer for details. You may spread the word in your circle.
