- + These are 95 Gp.Hqs.
- + These Gp.Hqs. control : 667 Army Wing, 60 Naval Wing, 61 Air Squadron.
- + In addition there are two Training Institution (i) Officers Training Academy(OTA),Nagpur (ii)Women Officers Training Academy(WOTA);Gwalior where professors & teachers from colleges & schools are specially trained to impart training to the cadets, as Associate N.C.C. Officers( ANO's).

Aims of N.C.C.

- To develop the qualities of character, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secularism, spirit of adventure and ideal of selfless service among youth of the country
- To Prepare human resource of organised, trained and motivated youngmen.
- To create suitable enviornment for motivating the youth of the country to make career in armed forces.

Aims of NCC

The 'Aims' of the NCC laid out in 1988 have stood the test of time and continue to meet the requirements expected of it in the current socio-economic scenario of the country. The NCC aims at developing character, comradeship, discipline, a secular outlook, the spirit of adventure and ideals of selfless service amongst young citizens.

Further, it aims at creating a pool of organized, trained and motivated youth with leadership qualities in all walks of life, who will serve the Nation regardless of which career they choose. Needless to say, the NCC also provides an environment conducive to motivating young Indians to join the armed forces.

Objectives of NCC

To Create a Human Resource of Organized, Trained and Motivated Youth, To Provide Leadership in all Walks of life and be Always Available for the Service of the Nation.

To Provide a Suitable Environment to Motivate the Youth to Take Up a Career in the Armed Forces.

To Develop Character, Comradeship, Discipline, Leadership, Secular Outlook, Spirit of Adventure, and Ideals of Selfless Service amongst the Youth of the Country.

Oath of NCC

I..... Do hereby solemnly take vow that I will serve my motherland most truly and loyally and that I will abide by the rules and regulation of the N.C.C. Further, under the command and control of my Commanding officer, I will participate in every camp most sincerely and with full strength.
