

Vijay Diwas Celebration At Dr PDKV Ncc subunit.

Dated on 16th December 2019.

Akola,

The auspicious occasion of Vijay Diwas is commemorated every 16th December in India to Indian Military's victory over Pakistan in Indo-pakistani war 1971 for the liberation of Bangladesh from Pakistan.

On the behalf of Dr PDKV Ncc subunit the supreme homage given to the Veer Shahids of our Nation. This programme was commenced at our NCC office Dr PDKV unit at sharp 9:00am onwards in the foremost presence of Res. Guest PSI Rameshwar Chauhan Sir, the Head of MIDC Akola and The Security Incharge Res Nandu Charate Sir. Their presence gave the energetic turnout for this providential day were welcomed by honoring them seedlings. Also expressed their thoughts regarding the importance of the day.

This memorial day was celebrated under the supervision of ANO of Dr PDKV Akola Res. D.R. Rathod Sir and Care Taker Officer Res. Shirsat Mam besides also the guidance of Res seniors, Rank Holders and The Ncc unit Dr PDKV Akola. The program was hosted by Cdt Dwarkesh Ghatol, speeches conducted by Cdt Suyog Chandankar and Cdt Lekhankita Patre.

The chief guest PSI Res. R. Chauhan Sir speched up a valuable assets regarding his lifetime achivements and enlightened our cadets also hopefully remarked his views on this optimistic day.

The program was sum up by small photoshoot and end up by Visarjan.